

The decision to implant an ICD can be complicated and require a careful evaluation of the risks and benefits of the defibrillator combined with the risks associated with other medical problems. Dr. Bennett will evaluate the benefits of ICDs in patients with non-ischemic cardiomyopathy and describe other illnesses which impact the benefit of an ICD.